IELTS Up Words!

Lesson 14: Travel

Travel

Hello and welcome to another lesson of IELTS Up Words!

In this lesson, we are going to learn more about a topic that everyone loves: traveling! Do you occasionally get itchy feet just like me? I mean, do you get this strong desire to travel and you can't contain your excitement? Most people feel this way. Most of us dream of going trekking and becoming intrepid explorers or visiting quaint little villages, where we can relax and enjoy picturesque views. Right? Do you know the meaning of the words that I just used? If not, don't worry. Wait till the end of the lesson because I am going to explain everything like always. However, if you feel like this is too hard for you, I suggest that you study the pamphlet first, and then head over to the audio file. That will make it easier for you.

Now I am going to pose a question here, and I want you to talk about it yourself before listening to my answer. Okay?

Describe your ideal travel destination.

This is easy because I always envision myself in my ideal travel spot, which is a cottage in the mountains covered in lush woods with crisp mountain air, oh, and a lake or stream nearby. I wouldn't mind if this cottage were not sumptuous, as long as it is clean, I'll be fine. In addition to that, I would picture this place on a rainy day since I don't really enjoy sunny spells. And I want this place to be located in a remote area that can only be accessed via treacherous roads. Haha! I'm joking! I just want it to be quiet with stunning scenery so that I can leave it feeling relaxed and refreshed.

Speaking Tip

Speaking Part One Tip

The first part of the speaking section is a friendly interview. The examiner will ask you some simple and straightforward questions, like:

- Do you like traveling?
- Who do you often spend a holiday with?
- When you visit new places, what do you like to do?
- Do you prefer traveling alone or in a group?
- In which seasons do you prefer to travel?

The first tip here is to answer the questions directly. If the examiner asks, "do you like traveling?" Answer the question first and then develop your answer with one or two more points. Also, don't worry about repeating some words from the question. You don't need to change every word the examiner says in this part because it is not natural.

You can start your response like this:

"Yes, I am a big fan of traveling."

or

"No, I don't like it much."

or

"Yes, traveling is the greatest passion in my life."
