IELTS Up Words!

Lesson 3: Family

Family

Hello, and welcome to IELTS Up Words!

How are you today? I hope you are doing well and ready for another lesson to level up your words for the IELTS test. In this lesson, you are going to hear a question and the answer. I recommend that you pause after the question and then try your hardest to answer it the best way you can. Then, play the sample answer and compare yours to it.

Tell me about your family.

Well, I come from a close-knit family. We never keep anything from each other and make sure to visit one another at least every other weekend. Even though we don't live together anymore, the family ties are very strong, which is why I had a carefree childhood and both my parents played an active role in my upbringing. We also look very much alike. People say they can easily see the family resemblance between my sisters and me. And I would say I come from quite a small family—just my parents, my two sisters, and me. But both of my parents come from very large families, so my extended family is certainly not small. I have twenty cousins! We have a couple of reunions each year and our family gatherings are pretty chaotic but fun.

Speaking Tip

Word Forms

- Many words in English have four different forms; verb, noun, adjective, and adverb.
- Sometimes, several adjectives can be formed from a verb by adding suffixes, such as “–able,” “–ed,” and “–ing.”
- Others, such as the noun fun, have no verb or adverb form.
- Learning word forms is essential to help improve your speaking score and speaking in general.
- Learning word forms improves your ability to paraphrase.
- You can find other forms of a word in most dictionaries. They are usually mentioned under the definition of each of the forms.
