IELTS Up Words!

Lesson 43: Your Best Friend

Hello, and welcome to lesson forty-three of IELTS Up Words! In this lesson, we are going to have another part two IELTS speaking question, which means that you will hear a question with some prompts, and then, you will have up to two minutes to talk about it. You can use the words you learned in the previous lessons to answer this question. So, ready?

Describe a friend you have known for a long time. You should talk about:

- how long you have known them
- how you met them
- their personality and character
- what you have in common
- what you like doing together

I would like to talk about my best friend Sara. We have known each other since primary school and have been inseparable ever since.

I actually met her first in our neighborhood. Her parents had just moved into the house across from us and since we were going to the same school, her mother asked if I could be her friend. I was very well-mannered, so I said yes and helped her catch up on our schoolwork as well. And at school, I helped her get around and introduced her to my friends.

To be honest, she came across as clumsy and diffident when we first met. She wouldn't talk much and would bump into things too often and so embarrass us both at school. But little by little, I realized that she was this cheerful and reliable girl who would later become my best friend. I could be myself around her and have a heart-to-heart with her all the time.

We had so much in common as kids, which helped strengthen our bond. We were both interested in arts and would hang out at art galleries and cinemas more often than not. What is more is that we shared the same sense of humor. We were always laughing and had a million inside jokes!

One thing we liked doing when we were together was gossiping! Yeah, we would have a sleepover and talk about our classmates for hours on end! We would also go roller-skating after school in the park nearby. And since she wasn't the most elegant skater, our roller-skating sessions were not without incidents.

I honestly don't know what I would have done without her. She made my childhood so beautiful.

Speaking Tip

Part Two: Person

Another popular cue card topic is around the theme of talking about a person, such as your friend, parent, sibling, neighbor, etc.

Who do you see on a daily or weekly basis? Make a list of them.

Practice talking about these people. Make sure to talk about both their physical appearance and personality traits.

Get into the details: When was the first time you met them? How? Where?

Gradually add other people to this list, for example, the president, a soccer player, a celebrity, your role model, etc.
